

The Use of Bisurated Magnesia for Stomach Troubles

In these days of almost universal indigestion, dyspepsia and other stomach troubles, the recent announcement by a great specialist that pure bisurated magnesia is an almost infallible remedy for nearly all forms of stomach trouble, will come as a welcome surprise to all sufferers. A teaspoonful in a little water immediately after eating, or whenever pain is felt, neutralizes the excess acid, and instantly stops the fermentation and pain. Those who use bisurated magnesia regularly for a week or two usually find that the trouble has entirely disappeared, and normal digestion is completely restored.—Advt.

LAMAR FILES DEMURRER AGAINST INDICTMENTS

Court Denies Motion to Dismiss One Charge Against "Wolf of Wall Street."

In the Lamar hearing to-day in the Federal District Court counsel for the defendant filed a motion to dismiss the first indictment against him on the ground that it is superseded by the second. Both charges the same facts, the alleged impersonation of Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer in telephone talks with Lewis Case Ltd.

yard and J. P. Morgan & Co. The motion was denied. It is admitted the two indictments charge the same facts covering the same incident. They probably will be consolidated in case the defendant is put on trial. Demurrers were filed then to both these indictments. Argument thereon will be heard later. No action was taken on the third indictment charging conspiracy with Edward Lauterbach. Should Judge Sessions overrule the demurrers United States District Attorney Marshall will press for an immediate trial.

WOULD MAKE IT A CRIME TO STEAL WIFE OF ANYBODY

There Should Be Legislation in the Form of a Penal Domestic Relations Law, Says Barney.

In objecting to a motion made by Prof. Alexander S. Chessin, whom he has sued for alienating the affections of his wife, to transfer the case to Richmond County, Marshall A. Barney, the plaintiff, told Supreme Court Justics Weeks yesterday he would give all he got from Prof. Chessin to the New York Post Graduate Hospital. Prof. Chessin, who was once connected with Columbia University, lives on Staten Island. Mr. Barney, who is an attorney, says in one of the affidavits he submitted to the court: "The law is weak in offering no adequate remedy to punish such a wrong as this. This act, as the court knows, is one that often upsets mentalities, causes the brain to reel and too often the vital cord of reason snaps, and murder is the result. Public conscience should be awakened to the necessity of legislation in the form of a penal domestic relations law to punish the
